3. Flexibility rule

3. Flexibility rule

- Individual BLs can be exceeded by 20% at project level
- Monitoring and approval - LP
- If more than 20 % - MA approval

RESTRICTIONS:

- N/a: staff cost and lump sums
- Partially apl. BL Equipment,
- New activity or cost item cannot be included
- Total PP budget cannot be changed

Small changes procedure

1. Description and justification (LP email)

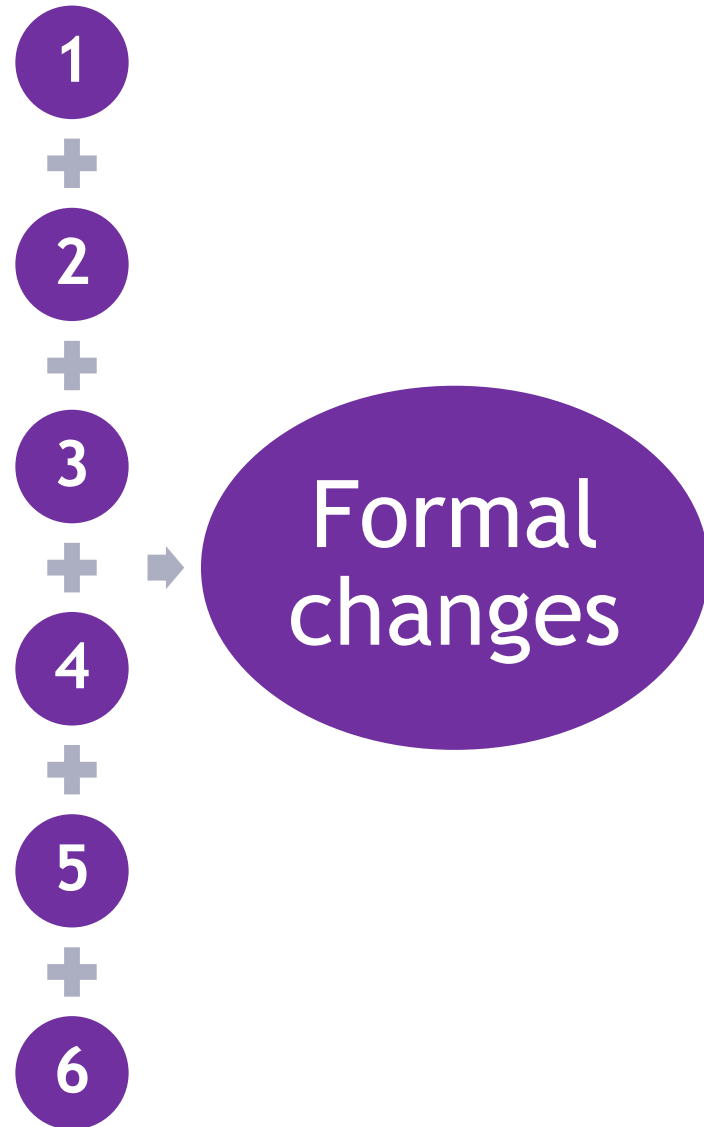

- additional clarification might be needed (yet in most cases not)

2. Approval (JS email)

- JS writes approval by email and saves it in internal network and in the eMS

Formal modifications

- 1-2 Modification Requests
- The last Modification Request at least 6 months before the end of the project
- Project Steering Group approval beforehand

Modification procedure

1. LP contacts JS contact person

- needs discussed
- CP evaluates relevance, what type of modification and recommends next steps

2. Preparation of Modification Request (word + excel files)

- Filling in templates
- Clarifications
- Submission of electronic version (including SG minutes)

3. Approval

- JS writes cover letter „JS opinion“
- MA (in very rare cases SC) approves changes (signature)

Modifications in the eMS

4. Modification request by the CP

- Suitable time carefully checked and agreed (LP, JS CP and financial officer)
- JS CP indicates in the text box what will be changed

5. Updates of the AF

- LP updates the AF according to the Modification Request
- Also all small budget changes approved by email included
- Updates harmonised with JS CP

6. Approval in the eMS

- JS writes approval message
- Informs MA by email
- MA confirms in eMS

Staff cost

1. change (decrease or increase) the work load of a staff position up to more than 25% compared to AF
(e.g.  $10\% + 25\% = 35\%$  communication manager)

2. workload of planned positions can be rearranged

Final remarks

- Less formal modifications (1-2 times per project compared to 5-6 or even 10)
- More responsibility/freedom on LP and JS contact person in managing changes and taking decisions

Staff cost

1. change (decrease or increase) the work load of a staff position up to more than 25% compared to AF (e.g. 10 % + 25 % = 35 % communication manager)

2. workload of planned positions can be rearranged

must among programme bodies and avoidance of overlap

- no paper version of the Subsidy Contract amendments
