CBC Programmes response to COVID-19 crisis

23 June 2020 (10:00-12:00 CET)

Online

Outline

In response to the high level of interest indicated by the CBC programmes, Interact is going to hold an online session dedicated to exchange on practices and actions responding to the COVID-19 crisis. The session will be dedicated to the programme practitioners involved in the overall project's support as well as general programme implementation.

Objectives

During the event participants will have opportunity to discuss and exchange on:

- different practices and procedure how programmes can support projects in smooth implementation during the COVID-10 crisis (i.e. possibilities for prolongations, changes in the delivery, etc.);
- different practices and procedures connected to the programme implementation (i.e. how to conduct on the spot visits, reporting to the EC, etc.);
- proactive approach towards the COVID-19 crisis by e.g. organizing dedicated calls for projects with the aim to counteract the crisis;
- other issues proposed by the participants.

Target group

This event is dedicated to Joint Secretariats' and Managing Authorities' staff involved in the project and programme management, both content and finance.
