Outline

Interact is organising another internal networking meeting for the cross-border programmes of the North Western part of Europe. The meeting is dedicated to programme practitioners involved in overall project support, as well as general programme implementation. The main objective is to follow up on the overall situation with the COVID-19 crisis.

Objectives

During the event, participants will have the opportunity to discuss and exchange on:

- Follow up on the programme's measures and procedures towards the COVID-19 crisis;
- The overall programme implementation performance (indicators);
- Overview on investment.

Target group

This event is relevant for staff of Joint Secretariats and Managing Authorities who are involved in project and programme management, in both content and finance.
