Testing and using Arachne

23 February 2017
Brussels, Belgium

Objectives

Many Interreg programmes are testing Arachne now or have decided to use it and seek for further explanations on how to "read" the information coming from ARACHNE.

Some programmes asked for specific support on how to use the results of the Arachne analyses and how to interpret the risk indicators' values and apply them to the Interreg context.

During this meeting DG Regio auditors and DG Employment representatives will present their view on how risk indicators should be read, used and applied.

The meeting foresees active contributions from all participants, with only brief presentations to introduce questions programmes may have.

Target groups

The event is dedicated to Interreg programmes' staff from MAs and JSs.
